Title of proposed project	ATTENTION AND PREVENTION OF GENDER VIOLENCE AMONG YOUNGSTERS
Deadline:	22 of April 2009
Description of project idea incl. theme and activities	OBJECTIVES General: The general objective is to study and analyze from an European approach, the causes, effects and prevention of gender violence, specifically among young people and teenagers, in a familial and educational context. The final aim is to eradicate unequal power relations between men and women leading to discrimination and to foster for a model society promoting the real and effective conditions for the equality between women and men. Specifics: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To make a research about violence against women which dominate behaviors, attitudes and habits in the couple relationships in young people between fifteen and twenty five years old. 2. To carry out awareness raising actions to prevent violence against women in young people, through informative brochures. The main aim of this measure is to make young enjoy their couple relationships based on respect and equality. 3. Compilation of European Good Practices with young perpetrators. There would be detected at European level successful experiences in assisting perpetrators, especially those practices that pay more attention to prevention and reeducation of aggressors. TARGET GROUP Male and female youngsters and teenagers BASIS OF THE PROPOSAL In Spain about 29, 2% of women killed in 2008, victims of gender based-violence, were under 30 years old - and also their perpetrators-. For this reason the General Directorate against Gender Violence intends to promote a Daphne project from a gender perspective since it consider that violence against women is a direct result of gender inequality and a manifestation of the historically unequal power relations between men and women which have led to domination over and discrimination against women by men. We are very interested in having a more detailed knowledge about the gender relationship in young couples in order to prevent any kind of violence against women through awareness and information activities targeted at youngsters in order to make them rethink their violent attitudes towards women.
